

Thursday 20-02-2014 – Final Food Port Conference

Meeting Venue: De Grote Post (Meeting room: de Kleine Post), Hendrik Serruyslaan 18a, B-8400 Oostende

Conference Moderator: Wim De Vilder

08h30 – 09h00	Registration and coffee.	(Panoramazaal)
09h00 – 10h15	Welcome at the final Food Port conference in Oostende.	Stefaan Matton, General Manager, POM West Flanders & Paul Gerard, Managing Director, Port of Oostende
	Keynote speech.	Minister Hilde Crevits, Flemish Minister of Mobility and Public Works
	Future perspectives for transport and logistics in the Interreg V B North Sea Region Programme (2014 – 2020).	Jesper Jönsson, Project Development Officer, North Sea Region Programme
	The Food Port results in brief.	Liesbet Pauwels, Project Manager Food Port, POM West Flanders
	Innovations in Agro-Food logistics.	Prof. dr. ir. Jack van der Vorst, Operations Research & Logistics, Wageningen University
	Questions & Answers.
10h15 – 10h45	Coffee Break.	(Panoramazaal)
10h45 – 11h45	Food Logistic Cluster Management in West Flanders and in the North Sea Region.	Alexander Demon, Head of Department Transport & Logistics & Bart Vannieuwenhuysse, advisor, POM West Flanders.
	Creating a Food Logistics Network and supporting Food Logistic Centres. Best practice example from Region Västra Götaland.	Kristina Liljestränd, PhD Student, Chalmers University; Jacob Minnhagen, Senior Manager Market Development, Port of Gothenburg; Gustaf Zettergren, advisors, Region Västra Götaland.
	ILC technology in the Food Supply Chain.	Nick Riley, Senior Lecturer, University of Hull.
	Questions & Answers.
11h45 – 13h15	Lunch & Networking.	(Panoramazaal)

13h15 – 14h30	Is a modal shift to Short Sea Shipping within reach for fresh fish? A feasibility study.	Dr. Katharina Jantzen, Postdoc. Researcher & Prof. Dr. Wolfgang Lukas, Professor for Business Administration, Hochschule Bremerhaven
	Test to achieve longer shelf life of fish. Final results and learnings.	Wolfgang Zeitz, Logistics Manager, "Deutsche See"
	Establishing a new green transport corridor – lessons learnt from Hitra Case (Hitra-Zeebrugge).	Jan Erik Netter, advisor, Port of Kristiansund & Nordmore; Patrick Van Cauwenberghe, Policy Director Socio Economic Department, Port of Zeebrugge & Kevin Lyen, advisor, POM West Flanders
	The North Sea Fish Project- Innovation from Catch to Plate.	Roos Galjaard, Project Manager North Sea Fish Project
	Questions & Answers.
14h30 – 15h00	Coffee break.
15h00 – 16h30	Agro Food Logistics in Denmark – setting up a new Food Port corridor from Padborg to Rotterdam.	Mads Mahler, Vice President, Danish Crown A/S; Norbert Rekers Leiter Geschäftsbereich Intermodal, TX Logistik AG; Lisbeth Brøde Jepsen, Postdoc., Dept. of Environmental and Business Economics, University of Southern Denmark
	An improved freight transportation system for a food producer. Comparing external and logistics costs.	Måns Böös, External Logistics Manager at Findus Sverige AB & Kristina Liljestrand, Chalmers University of Technology
	Establishing a new corridor from Oostende to Saint Petersburg.	Wim Stubbe, Business Development Manager, Port of Oostende & Kevin Lyen, advisor, POM West Flanders
	Strengthening existing green corridors – the example of the Zeebrugge-Rosyth Corridor.	Clr. Russell Imrie, Chair of SEStran & Stein Van Est, Managing Director, DFDS Seaways Ghent and Route Director for the Rosyth – Zeebrugge service
	Lifting the spirit – whisky by rail	Frank Roach, Partnership Manager, Hitrans
	Questions & answers.
	Closing Speech.	Jean de Bethune, President, POM West Flanders and Member of the Provincial Executive of West Flanders
16h30	End of Conference.	